Application as Consultant

Dear Ms. HR,

I am pleased to apply for a position as Consultant at Desired Company AG. I believe I am a perfect fit for DC AG because I am passionate about your products. During two open days I have already made first contact with your company and selected employees. My skills are extraordinary and the combination of implementing new stuff and customer-focus fits my career ambitions perfectly.

Please let me know if you have further questions. I would be grateful if you gave me the opportunity to present myself and my skills personally during an interview.

Sincerely,
